

Explanation

The AP® United States History course was designed for students to use the following textbook: America’s History, 8th ed., by James A. Henretta, Eric Hinderaker, Rebecca Edwards, and Robert O. Self.

Some students may be using the ninth edition of the textbook for this course. The table below is intended to provide the nearest equivalent reading assignments. Please note that not all reading assignments have an equivalent reading in the ninth edition, as some content was eliminated by the publisher. Students may not be able to complete all of the journal assignments in the course if they are using the ninth edition. In addition, discrepancies in assessment content may exist, as items were created using the eighth edition. We have also included a crosswalk to a free, online and open-source textbook, which can be found here: <http://www.americanyawp.com/>. The links listed below are from this source.
